Accepted Works

Final determination on accepted works will remain with the Farmington Museum. All artists will be notified by mail if artwork has been accepted or declined, please do not call.

Works must remain until the show closes and the staff takes them down. Artists not sending accepted work(s) will be disqualified from any Gateway Juried Art Show for two (2) years. Artworks not conforming to the accepted slide or digital image will not be shown. Artwork may be refused if it is found to be hazardous to museum collections, human health or safety.

A maximum of two artworks, per artist, may be submitted for jurying. Submit one 2 x 2 slide or digital image (JPEG format-no larger than 8 x 10 @300 dpi) for each 2D work. Two views may be submitted for each 3D work. Slides/images must be clearly labeled (no sticky labels or tape please), with title of work, artist's name, medium, and with arrow designating "Top." No glass or thick mounted slides will be accepted. All submitted slides will be returned to the artist, with the exception of the accepted works which may be used in publicity for the show. The images may be submitted on a CD or you may contact us at artshow@fmrn.org to get instructions to our ftp site.
