

Party Policies

Public Swim Parties – The Farmington Aquatic Center is available for parties during normal Public Swim times and at the normal Public Swim admission fees per person. You can bring us a list of guests that will be swimming and we’ll check them off as they enter – that way, you can make a one-time payment for your guests who arrive and swim. If you have guests attend who will not swim, they will not be allowed on the pool deck so there is no fee for their attendance. You may bring 1 or two tables (first come first serve – space is limited) to set up outside or in the observation area in the lobby (not on the pool deck) for a cake and refreshments (no alcohol or glass containers) but you’ll need someone in your party to stay with the table and watch it. You’ll need to begin cleanup 30 minutes prior to the end of the Public Swim session and complete cleanup by the end of the session. You’ll also need to read and sign the full list of policies when you book your party.

Private Parties – The Farmington Aquatic Center and Brookside Pool are available for private parties during the times, and at the costs, listed below. Food and drink are allowed in the pool deck area during private parties only. Alcohol and glass containers of any kind are prohibited.
